Signage- Crib put up for sign below Steenburg Lake looking for the signs to be up by tomorrow.

Example of sign provided.

Comfort Country- Mary reported that total budget is $23,000 for 2010. Going to delete radio advertising, shirts, pens ,bags and signs ordered. Further discussions Rural tourism organization sponsored by the Ontario Government. Registering the logo. Non-profits available. Want to know if we can have the meeting here. Check with Clerk with the availability of Hall. We were to be considered a full partner but there needs to be clarification. Letter of understanding to be drawn up to advise them of our concerns Joan to contact them about the situation.

Motion to accept Mary's report by Gord Scahdd and seconded by Irene Martin Carried.

Recycling Committee

No report made at Council. By-law was supposed to be presented to Council. Didn't happen. Chairperson should not be the council member.

Not a recognized committee by council and this should be changed. Motion to accept Mary's report by Irene Martin and seconded by Gord Schadd. Carried.

Newsletters- Irene has spoken to people about the feasibility of a newsletter. Release form provided for permission for name to appear in Tudor and Cashel Newsletter. To be taken to council and reviewed. Example of pamphlet shown. Pamphlet will be ongoing. Suggestion that advertising in newsletter may be more feasible than pamphlet.

Open Air Theatre- suggestion to be done with other communities to provide activities for the community. Funding needed.

Trillium funding is in place and must be in by Nov.14. Bernice taking care of this. Suggestion that Grant is for 3 years.

Public Meeting –leave it until the Spring. Due to the short term now.

New Business- scheduled for October 9, 2010. All Candidates Meeting for the public to meet the candidates for the Election.

Next meeting scheduled for Oct. 28, 2010. Meeting ended at 8:10.Motioned by Irene Martin.
