TOWNSHIP OF TUDOR AND CASHEL

Resignation of Councillor Noreen Reilly

Date: October 19, 2021

(Gilmour, Ontario) At a Special Council Meeting held at 2:00 pm on Tuesday, October 12, 2021, Council officially declared vacant the Council seat held by Councillor Noreen Reilly.

Council member Noreen Reilly has resigned her seat on the Township of Tudor and Cashel Council effective immediately. Councillor Reilly was elected to serve on Council in 2018 in her second consecutive term.

In commenting on the resignation, Mayor Libby Clarke said “Councillor Reilly was a hardworking and dedicated advocate for the residents of the Township. On behalf of Council and all the residents of the Township, we appreciate her contributions as an elected official. All of Council and staff wish Noreen all the best.”

Based on direction provided by Council, the Clerk for the Township has been directed to contact Wanda Donaldson the next runner up from the 2018 election to fill the vacant seat on Council, as required under the Ontario Municipal Act.
